As a Forwarder in our Aid & Relief department you will be a part of one of SGL's largest and oldest departments. The right persons can expect an interesting and developing position in a fast-paced international environment with good working conditions. We work closely with some of the world's leading UN organizations and NGOs, supporting them in crisis areas around the globe.

The team you will be joining is well-functioning and cooperation and professional sparring is a priority for everyone.

Besides being responsible for full transport processes from submission of offers, final delivery to the destination, documentation to invoicing and among others your tasks will include:

- Coordination with both customer, warehouse, airlines and dispatch for timely movement of cargo.
- Follow-up with airline to keep track of departure information and updates.
- Registration and approval of supplier invoices and transport documents.
- Providing excellent, timely and proactive customer service always.
- Preparation of price quotations.
- Being accountable of ensuring that internal procedures and guidelines are adhered to.

What we expect you to bring with you:

- A minimum of 2 years of experience from freight forwarding (Air)
- Speak and write English and Danish fluently.
- Strive to perfection in every aspect of the supply chain.
- Willingness to participate in evening shifts 1-2 days a week (From Home)

As this is an excellent opportunity to join a major player in the logistics industry, we expect that you can identify yourself with our key DNA-words and values and work according to these.

- You are a problem-solver that are always ready to go the extra mile to find the best solution.
- You fit into an informal, fun, and respectful social atmosphere.
- You are characterized as having good people-skills.
- You love deep diving into details, even specializing in skilled hobbies.
